

3rd Annual Day Camp for Children Who Love Horses

Conducted by Equine Assisted Youth Programs
For children ages 4-12

Camper will have opportunities to experience:

- . horses up close and personal without riding
- . horse psychology and the secret skills of horse whispering
- . meeting new friends who share an interest in horses
- . practicing the care and grooming that a horse requires
- . safety skills with horses and exercises that build trust
- . swimming, arts and crafts, and teamwork
- . linking horse behavior and human behavior

Camp meets 9:00 am – 1:00 pm Monday through Friday during two sessions:
June 4-8 and June 11-15, 2007. Children may attend one or both sessions.

Fee: $250 per session.

Register early to reserve a space .

Registration forms are available upon request.

To register and/or request further information, contact
Ann Remick-Barlow, Director of Equine Assisted Youth Programs

505-526-6040

Some of the camp counselors are Staff from EAYP: Ann Remick-Barlow, LISW, Director; Brenda Zander, RN, Equine Specialist;; Judy Bartlett MSW student, Equine Specialist & Lifeguard; Jerry Lund, Equine Specialist, and Terry Lund, Equine Specialist. They are assisted by some awesome horses: Merlin, Ace, Tzar, Cruz and their miniature friends Starr, Lenny, and Sage,